

CAHN FELLOWS PROGRAMS

ELEVATING AND INSPIRING SCHOOL LEADERSHIP

The Cahn Fellows Programs seek to improve large urban public school systems nationally by providing distinguished school leaders with advanced professional development and recognition.

January News & Updates

Our December Study Summit provided 130 participants with rigorous professional development. A highlight was the presentation on Leading During the 9/11 Crisis by Lily Woo, Cahn Fellow 2003.

Nominations open January 15 for the 2023-24 cohort of Cahn Distinguished Principals Fellowship

Who can nominate?

Administrators or Cahn Fellows Alumni with knowledge of the applicant's leadership ability and student impact.

May I nominate more than one principal?

You are welcome to nominate as many eligible principals as you wish.

Who is eligible to be nominated?

Principals with 5 or more years of experience as a principal at the time of application, with documented success as a school leader in multiple areas.

Inaugural Alumni Conference

To commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Cahn Fellows Programs, we will convene our inaugural Alumni Conference in New York City on Saturday, May 20, 2023. We are looking for esteemed alumni who would like to present a workshop on a leadership topic. We are accepting presentation proposals until January 25, 2023.

Share your expertise!

Cahn Fellows Programs featured in the Gettysburg Foundation Newsletter

Dr. Timothy Jones, Cahn Fellow 2020, looking for ways to improve educational outcomes for his students, took advantage of a unique opportunity to bring his students from Best Academy in Atlanta to Gettysburg. "They need to hear that they too could be leaders if they take responsibility, stand up, and are not afraid to lead, and change their life circumstances," says Dr. Jones.
